

PRS

The Data Book (previously published as the Legislative Data Book) has been compiled as a descriptive statistical resource of the services provided by the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services (PRS) to the people of the State of Texas. Information covered in this book covers the most frequently asked questions about PRS programs. Our hope is that it will be beneficial in answering some of the questions as well as being an ongoing resource document.

The Data Book provides information in several types of charts using different time intervals (on the last day of fiscal year, annual) by county, region, and statewide totals.

When comparing data from one time period to another, please keep in mind that PRS has undergone several major changes. We have had a regional re-alignment, major policy changes that have influenced the data, and moved to a new automated environment (Child and Adult Protective System, known as CAPS) in the last five years.

Comments and questions are welcome.

Agency Mission

The mission of the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services (PRS) is to protect the unprotected.

Agency Philosophy

The PRS Board and staff embrace the following tenets:

- ◆ We will provide high quality services to clients through an integrated, efficiently managed service delivery system.
- ◆ We will recruit, train, and retain a stable staff that exhibits a high degree of professionalism.
- ◆ We will stress prevention of abuse, neglect, and exploitation through planning and integration of prevention programs and strategies within and across agencies, both private and public.
- ◆ We will behave in a manner that invokes trust, encourages consistency, and promotes positive relationships and partnerships.
- ◆ We will be accountable at all levels for agency resources.
- ◆ We will accept responsibility for our actions.
- ◆ We recognize that only through involvement of all community members can the State of Texas hope to protect its children and adults who are at risk of being abused, neglected, or exploited. Strong working relationships and a strong presence within the community are essential to our carrying out our mission.
- ◆ We will work with other organizations to share responsibility for those in need of protection. Our partners will include other state agencies, local public and private agencies, churches and synagogues, legislators, law enforcement, citizens who make referrals, families, service providers, health care providers, professional service organizations, and the business community.
- ◆ We will bring forth individual concerns and suggestions in an open and honest manner, with corrective action recommendations developed where appropriate.
- ◆ All clients, complainants, alleged perpetrators, and other persons who have contact with us will receive courteous treatment, clearly communicated expectations, and timely responses.

Program Responsibilities

- ◆ Ensure that children suspected to be at risk of abuse and/or neglect receive prompt and effective investigative services.
- ◆ Deliver quality in-home/family preservation services to all children found, by investigation, to need them.
- ◆ Ensure that all children who are found to need substitute care are provided effective services until returned to their homes or another permanent placement.
- ◆ Provide timely and quality investigations and protective services to adults in the community who are elderly or who have disabilities and who are victims of maltreatment.
- ◆ When no less-restrictive alternative is feasible, provide guardianship for persons with disabilities who have aged out of Child Protective Services conservatorship and who are unable to manage their affairs. Adult Protective Services (APS) also may provide guardianship for APS in-home clients who are incapacitated, have no one to act in their behalf, and need this service to prevent further maltreatment.
- ◆ Ensure that all allegations of abuse and/or neglect of persons served by or through Texas Department of Mental Health Mental Retardation (TXMHMR) facilities and community MHMR centers are promptly and effectively investigated.
- ◆ Regulate all child care facilities as required by law, to reduce the risk of serious injury, abuse, and communicable disease to children in these facilities.

The Community Initiatives for Program Development Division was established within PRS to develop, implement and manage contracted service programs to prevent child abuse and neglect, juvenile crime, family disruption, and the isolation of agency programs from the communities they serve. Community based programs to prevent child abuse and delinquency include:

- Community Youth Development Program - This program assists communities in designing comprehensive approaches to support families and enhance the positive development of youth. Using legislative appropriations, grants are made available for developing juvenile delinquency prevention approaches in communities with high incidences of juvenile crime. Thirteen communities are being served.
- Services To At-Risk Youth (STAR) Program - These services are offered to 7 to 17 year old youths who are runaways and/or truants, 7 to 17 year-olds living in family conflict, 7 to 9 year-olds who have been allegedly involved in, or committed delinquent offenses, and 10 to 16 year-olds who have allegedly committed misdemeanor or state felony offenses but have not been adjudicated delinquent by a court. Contracted community agencies offer family crisis intervention, short-term emergency residential care, individual and family counseling, and other support services.
- Texas Families: Together and Safe - Grants are allocated for Family Support services to community based prevention programs. The services are designed to alleviate stress and promote parental competencies and behaviors that will increase the ability of families to successfully nurture their children; enable families to use other resources and opportunities available in the community; and create support networks that enhance child-rearing abilities of parents.
- Texas Runaway Hotline - Hotline staff and volunteers work closely with social service agencies and juvenile delinquency prevention programs. Their goal is to provide callers with 24-hour crisis intervention and telephone counseling; information and referral for callers in need of food, shelter and/or transportation home; conference calls to parents and shelters; and a confidential message relay service between runaways and parents.
- Gang Activity Prevention Program - The program's objectives are to reduce the risk factors that may lead to gang involvement and students dropping out of school. Activities that are provided encourage parental involvement, educational enhancement, cultural and social enrichment activities, drug prevention education, and supportive guidance.

Special projects and initiatives include:

- Community Partners - Community Partners is a public/private partnership that develops local boards to support Child Protective Services staff by creating projects such as Adopt-A-Caseworker and Rainbow Rooms. Adopt-A-Caseworker pairs community groups with CPS caseworkers. The adoptive sponsor assists the caseworker in providing goods and services to CPS children and families on the workers caseload. Rainbow Rooms stock emergency items needed by children and families such as diapers, formula, clothes, toys, and cleaning supplies.
- Young at Heart - Young at Heart is an intergenerational program that encourages older Texans to volunteer and spend time with young children in child care settings. A grant for Volunteers in Service to America has enabled the agency to implement the program. The project includes recruitment, training, media materials, and volunteer recognition.
- Family Outreach - Family Outreach is an all volunteer organization that works to recruit successful parents to work with at-risk families under the supervision of a PRS case manager. Trained volunteers provide services to at-risk families, parenting classes, "warm lines" for parents in crisis, and other services as determined by the local center.
- Healthy Families - This voluntary, comprehensive and intensive home visitation program focuses on families with children who are assessed to be at risk of abuse, neglect or other poor childhood outcomes. Services begin around the time of the baby's birth and can continue until the child is 5 years old. As a primary prevention program, services are designed to prevent infant mortality, premature birth, disease, developmental delays, child maltreatment, school failure, juvenile delinquency, teen pregnancy, and other negative outcomes for children, youth, and families.
- Juvenile Sex Offender Treatment Project - Three state agencies--PRS, Texas Juvenile Probation Commission, and the Texas Department of Mental Health & Mental Retardation--have pooled resources to develop a model treatment program for juvenile sex offenders. The project provides community-based treatment to Galveston County children and youth who have committed sex offenses. Services are also provided to the offender's families, victims and victims' families. The project is scheduled to end in FY 2001.
- Home Instruction Program for Preschool Youngsters (HIPPY) - The HIPPY program builds on the basic bond between parents and their children. Three to five year old children learn, with their parents, from trained paraprofessionals who make home visits. As such, parents learn to prepare their children for success in school and beyond. The HIPPY program recognizes the role parents play in a child's transition from preschool to kindergarten.
- Second Chance Teen Parent Program - In cooperation with the Texas Department of Human Services, the Governor's Office, and the Texas Workforce Commission, PRS manages this program. Services are provided to teen parents who qualify for Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), their children and pregnant teens eligible for Medicaid. Services include counseling, parenting classes, pregnancy prevention training, mentoring case management, child care, educational assistance, and residential support.

Services To At-Risk Youth (STAR)

The Services To At-Risk Youth (STAR) program was developed to assist local communities in serving youth who often fall between the cracks of the service delivery system. Their problems are not severe enough to receive services from traditional systems such as Child Protective Services or Juvenile Probation. Therefore, the STAR program has established 56 contracts around the state with local agencies who make crisis counseling, emergency short-term residential care, and training available to at-risk youths and their families. The STAR program serves all 254 Texas counties.

* Provide care in the caregiver's home for up to six children under age 14; they may also take in up to six more school-age children. The number of children allowed in a home is determined by the ages of the children. No more than 12 children can be in care at any time, including children of the caregiver.

 Provide regular child care (at least four hours per day, three or more days a week, for more than nine consecutive weeks) in their own homes for 1 to 3 unrelated children.

 Does not include 205 child placing agencies or 6,246 Foster/Adoptive homes or 14 maternity homes.

Definitions

APS Community/In-Home – In previous years Adult Protective Services in-home counts have been referred to as “community” cases, and separate statistics have been collected for Mental Health and Mental Retardation facilities and community centers. To avoid confusion, the title “community” will no longer be used when referring to the APS in-home population.

APS Investigation of Adult Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation – The total number of Adult Protective Services investigations equals the total number of completed investigations.

CCL-Child Care Licensing – This program is responsible for protecting the health, safety, and well-being of Texas children who reside in or attend child care facilities. The program also regulates child care administrators, foster homes, halfway houses, child-placing agencies, and maternity homes.

Children in Foster Care – All children under PRS’ legal responsibility who are placed in foster homes, foster group homes, institutions, residential treatment facilities, and juvenile facilities who are in a placement paid by PRS or some other public facility. This is a subset of Children in Substitute Care.

Children in Need (Of Services) – Historical data indicates the approximate number of children in confirmed reports who need services after investigations versus the actual number of children who received services. The agency estimates that 70 percent of children who are in confirmed reports of abuse or neglect actually need services beyond investigation. The total includes the victims and their siblings.

Children in Substitute Care – Children under PRS’ legal responsibility who are placed outside their own home (home of origin). This includes foster homes, institutions, foster group homes, residential treatment facilities, hospitals, adoptive homes, other juvenile facilities, relative home placements, and independent living arrangements. This is a subset of Children in PRS Legal Responsibility.

Children Under the Legal Responsibility of the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services – All children for whom the courts have given the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services legal responsibility by temporary or permanent managing conservatorship or other court ordered legal basis. These children may be residing in an out of home placement or may have been returned to their own home (home of origin). When a child who has been abused and neglected must be removed from their home, an emergency court order must be obtained. After 14 days from the emergency court order a Child Protective Services worker must obtain from the court a temporary order for managing conservatorship. By no later than 12 months, the judge must either return the child to the parent and dismiss the suit, or appoint a parent, relative, or PRS as managing conservator on a permanent basis.

CPS Investigations of Child Abuse and Neglect – The agency is required by state law to conduct civil investigations of reports of suspected child abuse or neglect. Upon receipt, initial reports are assigned to priority groups based upon the alleged situations.

Intake Priorities – To establish time frames for investigations, Child Protective Services divides reports of child abuse and neglect into two priority groups. Priority group assignments are based on staff’s assessment of the degree of harm or risk to the children. Based on information reported by the complainant, staff evaluate the immediacy of the risk and the severity of the harm. The evaluation involves a number of factors including information about the alleged perpetrators, the children’s ages and conditions, the specific nature of the harm, and whether the harm has actually occurred.

a) Priority I – Intake reports that concern children who appear to face an immediate threat of serious harm or death as a result of the alleged abuse or neglect.

b) Priority II – Reports that concern allegations of abuse or neglect where there do not appear to be immediate threats of serious harm or death.

Referrals are assigned a priority based upon the information provided by the complainant. When conducting an investigation, the caseworker may be unable to confirm that abuse or neglect occurred. Additional facts may indicate that the report is unfounded, or the family may have moved and cannot be located so that the investigation cannot be completed. In these instances, a priority designation is not applicable. Sometimes a Priority I becomes Priority II when investigation shows that the abuse or neglect is not as serious as originally reported. Likewise, a Priority II referral may be classified as a Priority I when the investigation shows that the abuse or neglect is more serious than originally reported.

Level of Care – PRS seeks to place each child in the department’s conservatorship with a foster caregiver who is well qualified to meet the child’s needs. To achieve this, the department participates in a statewide system for classifying the needs of children and the capabilities of foster caregivers in six Levels of Care (LOC)

a) Level I – Adequate functioning in all developmental and/or environmental areas. There may be transient difficulties, “everyday” worries, and occasional misbehavior, but would be regarded as a normal child; responds to “normal” discipline. The caregiver provides routine home environment with guidance and supervision to meet the needs of the child.

Examples of Current Facility Operations: Children at this level typically are served in PRS independent foster family and foster group homes, Juvenile Court certified foster homes, PRS licensed care facilities.

b) Level II – No more than occasional problems in functioning in any area, some acting-out behavior in response to life stresses, but these are brief and transient; minimally disturbing to others, and not considered defiant by those who know them. The caregiver provides routine home environment with supplemental guidance and discipline to meet the needs of the child.

Examples of Current Facility Operations: Children at this level typically are served in PRS independent foster family and foster group homes; Juvenile Court certified foster homes, PRS licensed basic care facilities.

c) Level III – Frequent or repetitive minor problems in one or more areas; may engage in non-violent anti-social acts, but is capable of meaningful interpersonal relationships. Requires supervision in a structured supportive setting with counseling available from professional staff.

Examples of Current Facility Operations: Children and adolescents at this level typically are served in PRS licensed therapeutic foster family and therapeutic foster group homes; Texas Youth Commission or Juvenile Court approved foster family and foster group homes; PRS licensed basic care facilities, PRS licensed residential treatment centers; PRS licensed wilderness camps; PRS licensed half-way houses; PRS licensed programs serving mentally retarded children and adolescents; PRS habilitative foster family and foster group homes.

d) Level IV – Substantial problems; have physical, mental, or social needs and behaviors that may present a moderate risk of causing harm to themselves or others, poor or inappropriate social skills, frequent episodes of aggressive or other anti-social behavior with some preservation of meaningful social relationships. Require treatment program in a structured supportive setting with therapeutic counseling available by professional staff.

Examples of Current Facility Operations: Children and adolescents at this level typically are served in PRS licensed therapeutic foster group homes; Texas Youth Commission or Juvenile Court approved foster family and foster group homes; agency or independent foster family and foster group homes which meet PRS licensing standards for therapeutic foster family or therapeutic foster group homes; PRS licensed basic facilities; PRS licensed therapeutic camps; PRS licensed residential treatment centers; programs licensed by the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (TCADA); PRS habilitative foster family and foster group homes, and PRS licensed programs serving mentally retarded children and adolescents.

e) Level V – Severe problems; unable to function in multiple areas. Sometimes willing to cooperate when prompted or instructed, but may lack motivation or ability to participate in personal care or social activities or is severely impaired in reality testing or in communications. May exhibit persistent or unpredictable aggression, be markedly withdrawn and isolated due to either mood or thought disturbance, or make suicidal attempts. Presents a moderate to severe risk of causing harm to self or others. Requires 24-hour supervision by multiple staff in limited access setting.

Examples of Current Facility Operations: Children and adolescents at this level typically are served in a program which is licensed by PRS as a therapeutic camp or as a residential treatment center, in a program licensed by TCADA, or in a PRS licensed program serving mentally retarded children and adolescents.

f) Level VI – Very severe impairment(s), disability(s) or need(s); consistently unable or unwilling to cooperate in own care. May be severely aggressive or exhibit self-destructive behavior or grossly impaired in reality testing, communication, cognition, affect, or personal hygiene. May present severe to critical risk of causing serious harm to self or others. Needs constant supervision (24-hour care) with maximum staffing, in a highly structured setting.

Examples of Current Facility Operations: Children and adolescents served at this level of care typically are served in (1) an in-patient psychiatric hospital accredited by JCAH and licensed by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation (TxMHMR) as an in-patient psychiatric facility; (2) specialized placements in a variety of settings including those regulated by the TxMHMR Community Standards. These provide intensive medical interventions for severely medically fragile, mentally retarded children and adolescents who require intensive behavioral, educational and programmatic intervention due to their mental disabilities; (3) specialized placements in appropriately licensed facilities for severely impaired children who require a behavioral approach for treatment and education.

g) Level E2 – Emergency care in a foster group home.

h) Level E3 – Emergency care in an emergency shelter institution.

Permanency Goal Definitions – Permanency goals for children for whom PRS has legal responsibility include:

a) Family Preservation – This goal is selected if the child can be safely maintained in the family environment with supportive services from the Department without the Department having to take legal custody of the child. At some point, the Department will close its case with the family.

b) Family Reunification – This goal focuses on providing services to the family to deal with the issues of abuse or neglect so that the child who has been removed from the home can be returned to the parents. At some point the child is returned to the family with court approval. After a supervisory period, a recommendation is made to the court to return legal custody to the family.

c) Permanent Placement With Relative or Close Family Friends – This goal is selected if the plan is to place a child in the legal custody of the Department permanently with a relative or close family friend through either adoption or transfer of conservatorship, after a supervisory period.

d) Adoption by Non-Relative – This goal focuses on placing a child in the custody of the Department with an unrelated family for adoption. Parental rights must first be terminated by the court. After a supervisory period, the adoption is consummated.

e) Alternative Long-Term Care – This goal is selected when the child cannot be returned safely to the family, or cannot be placed with relatives or close family friends, and adoption is not a possibility for the child. Under this goal, the Department raises the child unless at some point legal custody can be transferred to a caretaker or another permanency goal becomes available. Formal court approved agreements are made with the foster families who have on-going relationships with these foster children to ensure that the children receive long-term consistent care. The goal is comprised of four sub-sections: 1) Foster care with commitment, 2) Foster care without commitment, 3) Transfer conservatorship to caregiver, 4) Other living arrangement.

f) Adult Living – This goal is selected for youth in the custody of the Department who are 16 or older (may start as early as 14) unless another permanency goal is more appropriate. Under this goal the Department will either prepare the youth to live independently as an adult or arrange the long-term care and support the youth will need in adulthood because of a disability.

Recidivism – Refers to the percent of clients referred to the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services more than once during the fiscal year, including those adults clients who refused services and were referred again.

Reports of Child Abuse and Neglect – The agency receives many reports of children who are in situations that are not optimal for their growth or development, but do not appear to involve child abuse or neglect as defined by law. Only the reports that meet the statutory definition of abuse or neglect are required by state law to be investigated by the agency.

Risk Assessment of Child Abuse/Neglect – Workers in child protective services investigate allegations of abuse and neglect and make assessments of risk. Risk is defined as: The reasonable likelihood that a child will be abused or neglected, as defined in the Texas Family Code, in the foreseeable future. The decision to provide services is based on the assessment of risk, and not on the findings of the allegations. Services are provided when it is necessary to protect a child from immediate harm regardless of whether or not abuse or neglect has already occurred. Risk assessment is an analysis of the family's ability to protect a child from abuse or neglect. In conducting a risk assessment, a worker explores risk factors, family strengths and resources, and safety issues in order to make decisions on how to protect children. After evaluating risk in a family, there are three possible conclusions:

- No Significant Risk Factors – No significant risk factors were identified.
- Risk Factors Controlled – Risk factors were identified; however, family strengths and available resources are sufficient to provide for the safety of the child in the foreseeable future.
- Risk Indicated – Risk factors were identified, and there are not sufficient family strengths and available resources to provide for the safety of the child in the foreseeable future.

If the third conclusion is reached, the response can involve any combination of the following:

- Complete a safety plan for the family that controls the risk factors with the child in the home.
- Provide family preservation services.
- Place the child with a relative or in foster care.

The efforts of Child Protective Services staff are directed at protecting children and maintaining children in their own homes only when their safety can be assured. In some CPS investigations the risk assessment process is not applicable. These are investigations that do not involve families, such as abuse or neglect alleged to have been committed by school personnel, or volunteers. CPS also does not do risk assessment if the family moves before the investigation is finished or when the only child in the family has died of abuse or neglect. By using a risk-based system for providing services, CPS is able to identify children in need of protection and direct resources and efforts for those most in need of them.
