

Services To At-Risk Youth (STAR)

The Services To At-Risk Youth (STAR) program was developed to assist local communities in serving youth who often fall between the cracks of the service delivery system. Their problems are not severe enough to receive services from traditional systems such as Child Protective Services or Juvenile Probation. Therefore, the STAR program has established contracts with local agencies throughout the state that make crisis intervention, emergency short-term residential care, and counseling available to at-risk youths and their families. The STAR program serves all 254 Texas counties.
